H.R. 1933
A Child Is Missing Alert and Recovery Center Act

As reported by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary on July 13, 2010

SUMMARY

H.R. 1933 would authorize the appropriation of $5 million for each of fiscal years 2011 through 2015 for the Department of Justice to make grants to a nonprofit agency (A Child Is Missing Alert and Recovery Center) to assist law enforcement agencies in locating missing persons. Assuming appropriation of the authorized amounts, CBO estimates that implementing the act would cost $15 million over the 2011-2015 period. Enacting the legislation would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply.

H.R. 1933 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA) and would impose no costs on state, local, or tribal governments.

ESTIMATED COST TO THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

The estimated budgetary impact of H.R. 1933 is shown in the following table. CBO assumes that the amounts authorized will be appropriated by the start of each fiscal year and that outlays will follow the historical rate of spending for similar activities. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 750 (administration of justice).
