

Brief Review of Federal and State Definitions of the Terms “Gang,” “Gang Crime,” and “Gang Member”

Federal Law

Current Legislation

Currently, federal law defines the term “gang” as “an ongoing group, club, organization, or association of five or more persons: (A) that has as one of its primary purposes the commission of one or more of the criminal offenses described in subsection (c); (B) the members of which engage, or have engaged within the past five years, in a continuing series of offenses described in subsection (c); and (C) the activities of which affect interstate or foreign commerce.” 18 USC § 521(a).

Current federal law describes the term “gang crime” as:

- (1) “A federal felony involving a controlled substance (as defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 USC § 802)) for which the maximum penalty is not less than five years.
- (2) A federal felony crime of violence that has as an element the use or attempted use of physical force against the person of another.
- (3) A conspiracy to commit an offense described in paragraph (1) or (2).” 18 USC § 521(c).

Also, current federal law describes the term “gang member” as “a person who:

- (1) Participates in a criminal street gang with knowledge that its members engage in or have engaged in a continuing series of offenses described in subsection (c).
- (2) Intends to promote or further the felonious activities of the criminal street gang or maintain or increase his or her position in the gang.
- (3) Has been convicted within the past five years for:
 - (A) An offense described in subsection (c).
 - (B) A state offense:
 - (i) Involving a controlled substance (as defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 USC § 802)) for which the maximum penalty is not less than five years’ imprisonment.
 - (ii) That is a felony crime of violence that has as an element the use or attempted use of physical force against the person of another.
 - (C) Any federal or state felony offense that by its nature involves a substantial risk that physical force against the person of another may be used in the course of committing the offense.

- (D) A conspiracy to commit an offense described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C).” 18 USC § 521(d).

Proposed Legislation

The proposed Gang Abatement and Prevention Act of 2007 would define a “criminal street gang” as “a formal or informal group or association of five or more individuals, who commit three or more gang crimes (not less than one of which is a serious violent felony), in three or more separate criminal episodes (not less than one of which occurs after the date of enactment of the Gang Abatement and Prevention Act of 2007, and the last of which occurs not later than five years after the commission of a prior gang crime (excluding any time of imprisonment for that individual)).”

The Act would also define a “gang crime” as “a felony offense under federal or state law punishable by imprisonment for more than one year, in any of the following categories:

- (1) A crime that has as an element the use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against the person of another, or is burglary, arson, or extortion.
- (2) A crime involving obstruction of justice, or tampering with or retaliating against a witness, victim, or informant.
- (3) A crime involving the manufacturing, importing, distributing, possessing with intent to distribute, or otherwise trafficking in a controlled substance or listed chemical (as those terms are defined in Section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 USC § 802)).
- (4) Any conduct punishable under:
 - (A) Section 844 (relating to explosive materials).
 - (B) Subsection (a)(1), (d), (g)(1) (where the underlying conviction is a violent felony or a serious drug offense (as those terms are defined in Section 924(e)), (g)(2), (g)(3), (g)(4), (g)(5), (g)(8), (g)(9), (i), (j), (k), (n), (o), (p), (q), (u), or (x) of Section 922 (relating to unlawful acts).
 - (C) Subsection (b), (c), (g), (h), (k), (l), (m), or (n) of Section 924 (relating to penalties).
 - (D) Section 930 (relating to possession of firearms and dangerous weapons in federal facilities).
 - (E) Section 931 (relating to purchase, ownership, or possession of body armor by violent felons).
 - (F) Sections 1028 and 1029 (relating to fraud and related activity in connection with identification documents or access devices).
 - (G) Section 1084 (relating to transmission of wagering information).
 - (H) Section 1952 (relating to interstate and foreign travel or transportation in aid of racketeering enterprises).
 - (I) Section 1956 (relating to the laundering of monetary instruments).
 - (J) Section 1957 (relating to engaging in monetary transactions in property derived from specified unlawful activity).

- (K) Sections 2312 through 2315 (relating to interstate transportation of stolen motor vehicles or stolen property).
- (5) Any conduct punishable under Section 274 (relating to bringing in and harboring certain aliens), Section 277 (relating to aiding or assisting certain aliens to enter the United States), or Section 278 (relating to importation of aliens for immoral purposes) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 USC 1324, 1327, and 1328).
- (6) Any crime involving aggravated sexual abuse, pimping or promoting prostitution, obscenity (including Sections 1461 through 1465), sexual exploitation of children (including Sections 2251, 2251A, 2252, and 2260), peonage, slavery, or trafficking in persons (including Sections 1581 through 1592) and Sections 2421 through 2427 (relating to transport for illegal sexual activity).”

State Law

A review of current state laws for various states’ definitions of the words “gang,” “gang member,” and “gang crime” reveals the following information:

“Gang” Definitions

- Thirty-seven states and Washington, DC, have legislation that defines “gang.”
- Twenty-nine states and Washington, DC, define a gang as consisting of three or more persons.
- Twenty-two states include a common name, identifying sign, or symbol as identifiers of gangs in their definitions.
- Twenty-three states refer to a gang as an “organization, association, or group.”
- Twenty-one states and Washington, DC, use the term “criminal street gang” to describe a gang.
- Every definition includes criminal/illegal activity or behavior.

“Gang Crime” Definitions

- Twenty-one states define “gang crime/activity.”
- Twelve states refer to it as a “pattern of criminal gang activity.”
- Eighteen states enumerate the exact crimes that are to be considered criminal gang activity.

“Gang Member” Definitions

- Twelve states have legislation that defines a “gang member.”
- Six states have a list of criteria, some of which a person must meet to be considered a gang member.
- Of those, five states require that a person must meet at least two criteria to be considered a gang member.
- Kansas requires an admission of gang membership OR three or more of its criteria.

Violent Gang and Terrorist Organizations File

The definitions of “gang,” “gang crime,” and “gang member” of the Violent Gang and Terrorist Organizations File (VGTOF), contained within the FBI’s National Crime Information Center (NCIC) share some similarities with those definitions used by the states:

“Gang” Definitions

- The VGTOF defines a gang as consisting of three or more persons.
- The VGTOF refers to a gang as an “organization, association, or group.”
- The VGTOF definition includes criminal/illegal activity or behavior.

“Gang Crime” Definitions

- The VGTOF definition enumerates the exact crimes that are to be considered criminal activity.

“Gang Member” Definitions

- The VGTOF definition has a list of criteria, some of which a person must meet to be considered a gang member.
- The VGTOF definition requires an admission of gang membership OR two of its criteria.
