GEORGE BUSH

THE WHITE HOUSE,

October 17, 1990.

Executive Order 12732 of October 31, 1990

International Fund for Agricultural Development

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, including section 1 of the International Organizations Immunities Act (22 U.S.C. 288), and in order to facilitate participation in the International Fund for Agricultural Development, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. The International Fund for Agricultural Development, which was established by an agreement to which the United States is a party and which entered into force on November 30, 1977, is hereby designated as a public international organization entitled to enjoy the privileges, exemptions, and immunities conferred by the International Organizations Immunities Act. This designation is not intended to abridge in any respect the privileges, exemptions, or immunities that such organization has acquired by international agreement or by Act of Congress.

Sec. 2. This order shall be effective immediately.

GEORGE BUSH

THE WHITE HOUSE,

October 31, 1990.

Executive Order 12733 of November 13, 1990

Authorizing the Extension of the Period of Active Duty of Personnel of the Selected Reserve of the Armed Forces

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including sections 121 and 673b(i) of title 10 of the United States Code, I hereby determine that, in the interests of national security, extending the period of active duty is necessary for the following: units of the Selected Reserve, and members of the Selected Reserve not assigned to a unit organized to serve as a unit of the Selected Reserve, now serving on or hereafter ordered to active duty pursuant to section 673b(a) of title 10 of the United States Code and Executive Order No. 12727 of August 22, 1990. Further, under the stated authority, I hereby authorize the Secretary of Defense, and the Secretary of Transportation with respect to the Coast Guard when the latter is not operating as a service in the Department of the Navy, to extend the period of active duty of such units and members of the Selected Reserve.

This order is intended only to improve the internal management of the executive branch, and is not intended to create any right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by a party against the United States, its agencies, its officers, or any person.

This order shall be published in the Federal Register and transmitted promptly to the Congress.

Executive Order 12734 of November 14, 1990

National Emergency Construction Authority

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, including the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.), the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), and 3 U.S.C. 301, I declared a national emergency by Executive Order No. 12722, dated August 2, 1990, to deal with the threat to the national security and foreign policy of the United States caused by the invasion of Kuwait by Iraq. To provide additional authority to the Department of Defense to respond to that threat, and in accordance with section 301 of the National Emergencies Act (50 U.S.C. 1631), I hereby order that the emergency construction authority at 10 U.S.C. 2808 is invoked and made available in accordance with its terms to the Secretary of Defense and, at the discretion of the Secretary of Defense, to the Secretaries of the military departments.

This order is effective immediately and shall be transmitted to the Congress and published in the Federal Register.
