EXECUTIVE ORDER 10193

PROVIDING FOR THE CONDUCT OF THE MOBILIZATION EFFORT OF THE GOVERNMENT

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes, including the Defense Production Act of 1950, and as President of the United States and as Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. There is hereby established in the Executive Office of the President the Office of Defense Mobilization. There shall be at the head of such Office a Director of Defense Mobilization, hereinafter called the Director, who shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and who shall receive compensation at the rate of $22,500 per annum.

2. The Director shall on behalf of the President direct, control, and coordinate all mobilization activities of the Executive Branch of the Government, including but not limited to production, procurement, manpower, stabilization, and transport activities.

3. All functions delegated or assigned by or pursuant to the provisions of Executive Orders Nos. 10161 of September 9, 1950<sup>1</sup> and 10172 of October 12, 1950<sup>1</sup> shall be performed by the respective officers concerned, subject to the direction and control of the Director.

4. In carrying out the functions conferred upon him by this order, the Director shall from time to time report to the President concerning his operations under this order and issue such directives, consonant with law, on policy and operations to the Federal agencies and departments as may be necessary to carry out the programs developed, the policies established, and the decisions made by the Director. It shall be the duty of all such agencies and departments to execute these directives and to make to the Director such progress and other reports as may be required.

5. The Director may perform the functions conferred upon him by the provisions of this order through such officers and such agencies and in such manner as he shall, consonant with law and the provisions of this order, determine.

6. Within the limitations of funds which may be made available, the Director may employ necessary personnel and make provision for supplies, facilities, and services necessary to discharge his responsibilities.

7. To the extent that any provision of any prior Executive order or directive is inconsistent with the provisions of this order, the latter shall control.

ESTABLISHING THE FEDERAL SAFETY COUNCIL

WHEREAS by section 33 (c) of the Federal Employees Compensation Act (5 U. S. C. 784), as amended by section 209 of the act of October 14, 1949 (Public Law 357, 81st Congress), the Congress declared its purpose to reduce the number of accidents and injuries among Government officers and employees, encourage safe practices, eliminate work hazards and health risks, and reduce compensable injuries; and

WHEREAS by the said act, as amended, and as modified by Reorganization Plan No. 19 of 1950, effective May 24, 1950 (15 F. R. 3178), the heads of Government departments and agencies are directed to develop, support, and foster organized safety promotion, and to keep such records of injuries and accidents to persons covered by the said act, and to make such statistical and other reports, as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe; and

WHEREAS the President is authorized by the said act, as amended, to establish by Executive order a safety council composed of representatives of Government departments and agencies to serve as an advisory body to the Secretary of Labor in furtherance of the safety program carried out by the Secretary pursuant to section 33 of the aforesaid act, as amended, and to undertake such other measures as he deems proper to prevent injuries and accidents to persons covered by the said act:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 33 (c)
