Statement by the Press Secretary

Visit by President Francisco Flores of El Salvador

President Bush will meet with President Francisco Flores of El Salvador at the White House on May 27, 2004. The President looks forward to discussing bilateral and regional issues with President Flores, including the war on terrorism, promoting and defending democracy in the hemisphere and beyond, and expanding free trade and economic opportunity in the region. The President values the strong, cooperative relationship between El Salvador and the United States.
