

CHDS NEWS DIGEST

May 4

On Campus:

Thirty-two new students of cohort 1501/1502 began their CHDS journey with their first in-residence on April 29. All are reported to have returned Monday.

CHDS in the NEWS:

- Caught in the dragnet (interview with D.C. Metro Police Chief Cathy Lanier, MA 0401/0402) – Washington Post
- Mass Development selects Avwatch to manage Mass UAS test ranges at Joint Base Cape Cod (Chris Kluckhuhn, MA 0603/0604)
http://www.gsnmagazine.com/article/44255/massdevelopment_selects_avwatch_manage_mass_uas_te
- Parkinson's diagnosis brings fight home for Homeland Security Director Gary Coons (ELP 1301) – WTHR News
<http://www.wthr.com/story/28927918/only-in-indiana-tonight-at-530-the-fight>
- Beverly Good (MA 0903/0903) introduced during change of command ceremony – Government Security News
http://www.gsnmagazine.com/article/44317/new_us_cbp_el_paso_port_director_introduced_change

Notes and Errata

- Watermark, the Center's alumni magazine, is currently in the pre-press production phase and should be available by the end of May.
- Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs: Jihad 2.0: Social Media in the Next Evolution of Terrorist Recruitment, May 07, 10 a.m., SD-342, Dirksen Senate Office Building.
- House Committee on Homeland Security – No hearings scheduled this week.