

Coronavirus Pandemic Response: Community Mitigation Decision Support Tool

In coordination with U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and other federal partners, FEMA released a tool to provide the data that state, local, tribal, and territorial (SLTT) government officials need as they continue to adjust community mitigation measures.

The Community Mitigation decision support tool puts the data for each metric in the President’s Guidelines for Opening Up America Again in one easy-to-access place – the Gate Indicators tab and sub-tabs. Officials can easily view their influenza- and coronavirus-like illnesses, case and death data, as well as a range of information on hospital capacity to determine whether community mitigation should be adjusted.

An account is required for access, and government officials can get one by applying here. Data sources are described in the resources tab.
